Preparedness, Response, Recovery: The First Step is Listening

www.acl.gov

The Administration for Community Living wants to hear and learn from older adults, people with disabilities, families and caregivers, about experiences with emergencies or disaster situations. ACL wants to learn how to plan, respond, and recover from these challenging and devastating situations. Listening Sessions will help ACL to understand how we can improve our support, training, and technical assistance in times when emergencies and disasters hit our nation.

Date: Tuesday, February 25, 2020

Time: 2:00 PM – 5:00 PM, CT

Location: San Patricio County Fairgrounds & Event Center, Terry A. Simpson Civic Center Building 1, 219 W 5th Street, Sinton, TX 78387

Event Description: Older adults, people with disabilities, family members and caregivers will participate in a discussion where questions in the areas of preparedness, evacuation, response and recovery will be asked by a facilitator and answered by each of the participants.
